2020 ASUA GENERAL ELECTION REFERENDUM RESULTS

ASUA currently has a unicameral legislature, with the ASUA Senate serving as our sole legislative body. The ASUA Senate is comprised of sixteen senators: thirteen college-specific senators and three at-large. This proposed amendment to the ASUA Constitution would introduce a House of Representatives to ASUA. This House will include twenty-nine student representatives from student organizations and communities, while providing them with the same legislative power as the current ASUA Senate.

In addition, this amendment will introduce a Senate seat for the College of Applied Science and Technology.
